Notes and Comments.

EVERYTHING is moving along nicely at the College.

BROTHER J. M. Fox reports two more accessions by baptism, at Sidney, Ind.

ONE more added to the College Corner church by baptism, Brother Summers pastor.

THE Virginia Brethren are getting ready for a fall camp meeting. With Brethren Moomaw and Bowman as leaders the work is sure to succeed.

THE QUARTERLIES for the last quarter of the year, have been ready for some time, and all orders up to date have been filled. All Brethren schools should use our helps.

BRETHREN Bowman and Moomaw are having good meetings in the Old Dominion. Seventeen accessions are reported in this issue with prospects for a very large increase.

SISTER Sayger of Akron, Ind., in ordering Sunday-school supplies, says their school closes in a month or two, but they want the supplies, even for so short a time. This is as it should be. If your school closes during the winter, is it not worth 4 cents to have the quarterly and follow the lessons?

BROTHER P. M. Swinehart, called at the office a few days ago. He is pastor of the church at Bryan, Ohio, and since Conference was enjoying a vacation with friends of the Fair Haven church.

IN a letter brother I. D. Bowman says: Two more baptized in our mission point in New Jersey. We now have out subscription papers soliciting funds for the First Brethren church in New Jersey. Brother J. C. Mackey, of Meyersdale, preached for us Sunday morning. His sermon was spiritual, doctrinal, practical, and highly appreciated. We were very sorry he had an engagement in Delaware in the evening, hence could not stay with us. Come again.

SOME one sent us an order for Sunday-school supplies, giving neither the name nor the address of the sender. The envelope contained an order blank, filled out as follows:

Brethren Quarterly	15
Youth's " "	10
Our Little Folks	8

There was no letter accompanying the order, nor any note of any kind as to who sent it, and where from. We therefore had to guess at the name and address, which was rather difficult to do. If such orders are not filled, there need be no complaint.

FROM ZION'S HILL.

September 21 we met in quarterly council, and attended to all business in a peaceable manner. We decided to hold a love feast on October 5, to which all of like precious faith are invited who can attend. After listening to a very practical talk from our pastor, Brother Kiefer, the usual invitation was given, to which two sisters responded and united with us by relation from the G. B. brethren. Others are counting the cost. On September 7, brother C. F. Yoder was with us and preached two very interesting sermons for us. Come again Charley.

THE students' prayer-meeting in the College chapel on Wednesday evening is being well attended and much good seed is being sown.

MISS Schultz, one of the old students who has been visiting in Columbus, Ohio, returned to her home in this place the first of this week.

MR. Beekly one of the Theological students, was unable, on account of sickness to prosecute his studies, for several days this week, but we are pleased to note that he has fully recovered and able to do good, hard work for which he is noted.
